

Dear Prospective Council Member,

The music doesn't begin when Maestro Pham lifts his baton. It begins with you joining the new CdA Symphony Council [CSC].

Through the CSC, members like you will help bring extraordinary music to life in our community. We invite you to become part of the music that moves Coeur d'Alene by joining the CdA Symphony Council where friendship, volunteerism, and a shared passion for the arts come together in perfect harmony.

The Coeur d'Alene Symphony's 2026–2027 season, *A Tapestry of Sound: American Roots and Beyond, promises an exciting journey featuring celebrated guest artists, audience favorites, and inspiring orchestral experiences.

When you join the CdA Symphony Council, you do more than support great performances. You become part of the Symphony family. Help sustain artistic excellence, welcome audiences, strengthen community connections, and ensure that live symphonic music continues to thrive in North Idaho.

Along the way, you'll enjoy exclusive social gatherings, new friendships, behind-the-scenes connections, and meaningful volunteer opportunities that let you participate in the Symphony in ways that match your interests and availability.

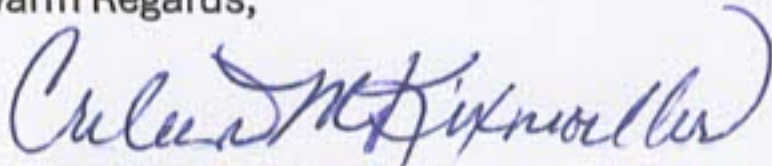

This season promises an exciting mix of new experiences and returning favorites with eight symphonic concerts that include two pops concerts, the Fall, Holiday and Spring concerts, two youth and family concerts, and the young artist national competition concert.

CSC membership perks include:

- Premier concert with candles featuring the new Radiant Resonance String Quartet
- Six exclusive concert receptions
- Two FriendRaiser social gatherings
- One Idaho Wildlife Museum tour infused with relevant music
- Meaningful volunteer opportunities to support key symphony initiatives

To join, simply complete the membership form and return it with your payment.

Warm Regards,

Crileen Kixmoeller, Chair
CdA Symphony Council, 2026-2027

Judith Pinkerton, Chair
CSO Board of Directors, 2026-2027
